

Edward Bangs – Eastham Land Records 1650-1745

Edward Bangs arrived in Plymouth from England in 1623. A fellow passenger was Nicholas Snow. He headed one of the seven families that settled Nauset in 1644. He was one of the original Purchasers. He was the first treasurer of Eastham and a surveyor of highways for several years. In 1657 he was allowed to sell wine and strong water but not to Indians. He died in Eastham in 1678 at age of about 86 years. He probably is buried in an unmarked grave in Cove Burying Ground.
